FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DELAWARE PERSONAL INCOME TAXES DUE APRIL 30th

Statewide, DE – January 18, 2012 – Division of Revenue Director Patrick T. Carter reminds taxpayers today that State of Delaware Personal Income Taxes are due April 30, 2012. Beginning today, January 18, 2012, citizens can file their Income Taxes online for free at www.delaware.gov.

On average, Delaware's online filing system allows taxpayers requesting a refund to receive their refund two weeks earlier than those filing a paper return. Currently, the average time to issue a refund for all tax filing methods combined is just over 10 days.

Delaware's online filing system also allows taxpayers to file their taxes electronically and then schedule any payment due closer to the April 30th deadline. The online system is also extremely user-friendly and available 24/7. Taxpayers may pay their State of Delaware taxes using a credit card or by debiting their bank account.

Because Delaware does not maintain reciprocity agreements with other states, it is important for anyone who is not a Delaware resident – but still works in Delaware – to understand that they must file a Delaware tax return. Likewise, Delaware Residents who work out of state are required to file returns with Delaware, in addition to the state where they worked.

By law, Delaware employees should receive their W-2 employment forms by January 31st for any job worked during the 2011 calendar year. Those who haven't received a W-2 by January 31st should contact their employer immediately.
